Oaks, PA (April 3, 2017) – Come to Lower Perkiomen Valley Park on Saturday, April 8, 2017 at 10:00am for a first look at the basics of orienteering. Visitors will meet members of the Delaware Valley Orienteering Association to learn about and try their hand at this fun family activity. Instructions in basic orienteering will be given at 10:00am, followed by the fun of using those new-found skills within the park. This event is suitable for all ages.
